

V.B.S.

WOW!!! I came into the parish office on Monday, July 11th and thought we were being invaded by a bunch of grapes.....No I had not been sampling the Altar Wine..... It was then that I realized it was the first day of V.B.S. here in our parish. The little ones had just received and had put on their V.B.S. shirts that were purple and the volunteers were wearing the color blue. My mind was telling me “don’t plan on getting anything done this week because for the next four days you will have over 30 little ones singing, shouting, dancing and just being themselves right out side of the office door”. Little did I know how I really longed to be out there with them and so every so often I took a break away from the computer and watched what was going on. They sang and danced (I was very reserved and didn’t join in), they worked on crowns that they wore, they made a large rosary while learning about the rosary, they listened with eagerness as Sister Amy Marie and Sister Gabriel from the Marian Sisters of Lincoln Nebraska talked with them (the little ones seemed to be in awe of them) always tugging at their habits to ask a question or two. All of this was to teach the little ones about Mary Our Blessed Mother who said YES when asked to be the Mother of Jesus. My favorite area to visit of course was the snack station....here they learned by different colors all about the life of Mary. They put blue frosting on cookies (they looked cute with blue all around their face), they had a donut with a hole to show them that without God something is missing so they received a donut hole to fill that emptiness. It was especially nice to see all the parishioners that attended the dinner on Wednesday night. Today is Friday and there is no V.B.S. and it seems a little empty and quiet around here. But during this whole week I was able to get my work done earlier than usual and I even came away knowing that even though I spent time with these little ones and the volunteers it was part of my job to get to know the parishioners both adults and children just a little bit better. So thank you Father Ralph. Sister Amy Marie and Sister Gabriel for joining us and teaching us about your vocations to the religious life. Thank you Babara Cox, Alva Sanchez and all the rest of the Holy Family Ministry for sharing your time and talents with us, and especially to the young people that helped out. Without all of your help Vacation Bible School would not have been the success that it turned out to be. If your child or children did not attend this year please consider having them attend next year. I am already looking forward to next year (wonder what great treats the snack station will have).

Peace and God’s Blessings Peggy

Holy Hour for Priests at St Catherine Laboure

Please join us in the Church for a Eucharistic Holy Hour to pray for priests and priestly vocations. We will meet every 4th Saturday of the month at 9:30 am to join our hearts and prayers in a sacrificial offering for our priests. Our next day will be Saturday, July 23rd. Why did Our Lord, when He spoke of vocations, single out precisely the word pray? Because prayer is the expression of the Christian community and the yearning of the Church. "Ask, and the gift will come" (Lk 11:9). Can we hope to receive if we do not ask? There are probably hundreds of thousands of vocations hanging from heaven on silken cords; prayer is the sword that cuts them. Archbishop Fulton Sheen, Venerable Servant of God For more information or to help with these holy hours, please contact Trisha Engel at 903.647.2274
