Our Mission Statement.

"By sharing the Gospel Message, we the family of St. Catherine Laboure are inspired to live the sacramental life by reaching out to all through the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, to serve our brothers and sisters in Christ."

REFLECTIONS FOR TODAY: The gospel this week shows us that God's people are those who are rejected by the world. We must remember our greatest reward is being with Jesus, How are becoming the corner stone?

REFLEXIONES PARA HOY: El Evangelio de esta semana nos muestra que el pueblo de Dios es aquel que es rechazado por el mundo. Debemos recordar que nuestra mayor recompensa es estar con Jesús. ¿Cómo nos estamos convirtiendo en la piedra angular?

This weekend is the first Sunday of the month and The Ladies of St. Catherine's "Donut Sunday", so make sure to stop in the parish hall after the 7:30 and 9:00 am Sunday Masses and enjoy a sweet treat. Thank You Ladies

Next week is the Knights of Columbus' "Breakfast Burrito Sunday". Make sure to stop by the parish hall after Mass next weekend to purchase your burritos. The Knights use the proceeds from their events to help others, so by purchasing the burritos you are also helping others.

El Proximo "Domingo de Burritos de Desayuno" de los Caballeros de Colón. No olviden pasar por el salón parroquial después de la misa este de la proxima semana para comprar sus burritos. Los Caballeros usan las ganancias de sus eventos para ayudar a otros, así que al comprar los burritos, también están ayudando a otros.

The St. Vincent de Paul association in our parish does an amazing job of outreach to those in need in our community. Many of our parishioners contribute on a regular basis to support this valuable ministry. In order for any donations you make to St. Vincent de Paul to get to those in need quicker, please make your checks out to St. Vincent de Paul instead of St. Catherine. Thanks.

Pastor's Corner

Ordinary Time will continue to the Advent Season, and in this time, we enjoy being opened to the public ministry of Jesus. His public ministry includes not only meeting people on the fringes, but also meeting people who are within the fold, faithful themselves.

This is affirmed in last week's Gospel when Jesus warned the Pharisees and other leaders that tax collectors and prostitutes are gaining the Kingdom of Heaven before you. In this week's Gospel, Jesus continues, warning that the Kingdom of Heaven will be taken from you because you fail to bear fruit.

Last week I spoke of what it means to be simply churchy as a faithful Catholic and how that is never enough. To be clear, churchy means just that: it describes the person who goes to Mass, participates in parish groups and ministries, but may lack regular confession or the personal conviction to change.

We are not called to be churchy but are called to be disciples. That is our call: faith, a brief in Christ.

Our participation in parish life should change us and not encourage us to lend an ear to gossip or participate in it in any way. We should be charitable, welcoming, patient, and kind. These are attributes of a genuine conversion because we have curtailed our nature.

Today Jesus challenges us to think about what kind of fruit we are producing. A true sign of faith is good and abundant fruit.

The fruit of a good Catholic Christian fosters a life committed to frequent confession and full, active, conscience participation in the Holy Mass.

This means our fruit should prioritize sacramental life as the way we strive for the things of heaven.

Mass should never be an afterthought but should always be a faithful Catholic's priority. We are obligated to attend Mass on Sundays, and we must take care to ensure that happens by planning during vacations or when our routines are interrupted.

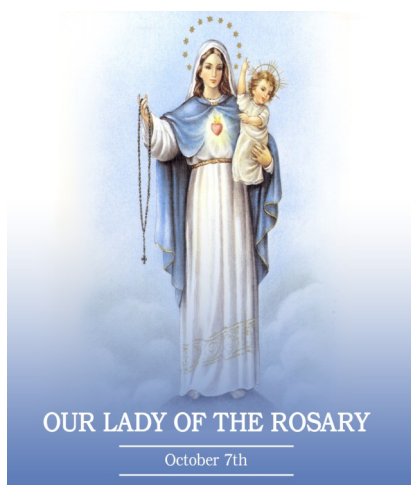

It's interesting that when we set priorities, Mass is often last on the list, and sometimes even forgotten. As Catholics, Mass should never be an afterthought, and we should seek confession often.

Our challenge today is to think about the fruit we bear, and if we bring the light of God with us wherever we go.

Our sacramental foundation must always remain intact. If we receive the sacraments and are unchanged, then we have much to think about.

Peace,

Fr. Michael

The Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7. The feast commemorates the Christian victory over the Ottoman fleet at the Battle of Lepanto on October 7, 1571, when Pope Saint Pius V called upon the faithful to pray the Rosary for divine assistance, resulting in a decisive victory for the Holy League. Originally named the Feast of Our Lady of Victory, it was later renamed Our Lady of the Rosary by Pope Gregory XIII in 1573 and extended to the universal Church by Pope Clement XI in 1716. The memorial highlights the spiritual power of the Rosary, a devotion introduced to Saint Dominic in the early 13th century, which became a central prayer for meditation on the mysteries of Christ's life. The Rosary is considered both a contemplative and Christocentric prayer, combining vocal and mental prayer to honor Mary while reflecting on the life, death, and glory of Jesus Christ. In the liturgical calendar, the Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary falls during Ordinary Time, represented by the color green, symbolizing hope and spiritual growth. The Roman Missal provides the proper Mass for this memorial, and it is observed as a mandatory memorial in the Roman Catholic Church.

This feast also marks the beginning of October as the Month of the Holy Rosary, encouraging the faithful to pray the Rosary daily and deepen their devotion to Mary and Christ. It is celebrated worldwide, with special Masses, processions, and devotional practices honoring the Blessed Virgin under the title of Our Lady of the Rosary.

El Rincón del Pastor

El Tiempo Ordinario continuará durante el Adviento, y en este tiempo disfrutamos de la oportunidad de estar abiertos al ministerio público de Jesús. Su ministerio público incluye no solo el encuentro con quienes están al margen de la fe, sino también con quienes forman parte de ella, los fieles mismos.

Esto se reafirma en el Evangelio de la semana pasada, cuando Jesús advirtió a los fariseos y otros líderes que los recaudadores de impuestos y las prostitutas están ganando el Reino de los Cielos antes que ellos. En el Evangelio de esta semana, Jesús continúa, advirtiendo que el Reino de los Cielos les será arrebatado porque no dan fruto.

La semana pasada hablé sobre lo que significa ser simplemente religioso como católico fiel y cómo eso nunca es suficiente. Para ser claros, ser religioso significa precisamente eso: describe a la persona que va a Misa, participa en grupos y ministerios parroquiales, pero que tal vez carece de la confesión regular o de la convicción personal para cambiar.

No estamos llamados a ser religiosos, sino a ser discípulos. Ese es nuestro llamado: la fe, una breve entrega a Cristo. Nuestra participación en la vida parroquial debería transformarnos, no incitarnos a escuchar chismes ni a participar en ellos de ninguna manera. Debemos ser caritativos, acogedores, pacientes y amables. Estos son atributos de una auténtica conversión, pues hemos refrenado nuestra naturaleza.

Hoy Jesús nos invita a reflexionar sobre qué fruto estamos dando. Un verdadero signo de fe es un fruto bueno y abundante.

El fruto de un buen católico fomenta una vida comprometida con la confesión frecuente y la participación plena, activa y consciente en la Santa Misa.

Esto significa que nuestro fruto debe priorizar la vida sacramental como el camino para alcanzar las cosas del cielo.

La Misa nunca debe ser una prioridad secundaria, sino siempre la prioridad de un católico fiel. Estamos obligados a asistir a Misa los domingos, y debemos asegurarnos de que esto suceda, planificándolo durante las vacaciones o cuando nuestras rutinas se vean interrumpidas.

Es curioso que, al establecer prioridades, la Misa suele ser la última en la lista, e incluso a veces se olvida. Como católicos, la Misa nunca debe ser algo secundario, y debemos confesarnos con frecuencia.

Nuestro desafío hoy es reflexionar sobre el fruto que damos y si llevamos la luz de Dios con nosotros a dondequiera que vayamos.

Nuestro fundamento sacramental debe permanecer siempre intacto. Si recibimos los sacramentos y no cambiamos, entonces tenemos mucho en qué pensar.

Paz,

Padre Michael

Knights BBQ: The Knights of Columbus are hosting their annual October Fest BBQ on Saturday, Oct. 10th from 4-7 pm in the hall. Enjoy the best BBQ pulled pork and chicken with all the fixings. Tickets are $15 for adults and $8 for kids under 12years. This year the Knights are holding a raffle with the dinner. The raffle prize is a new 50-inch color flat-screen TV, and the drawing will be held during the BBQ dinner. The winner need not be present, but you must buy a dinner ticket for the raffle. Please support the Knights and our local charities.

Barbacoa de los Caballeros de Colón: Los Caballeros de Colón organizan su barbacoa anual con motivo del Oktoberfest el sábado 10 de octubre, de 4:00 p. m. a 7:00 p. m., en el salón parroquial. Disfrute de la mejor barbacoa de cerdo desmenuzado y pollo, acompañada de todas sus guarniciones. Las entradas cuestan $15 para adultos y $8 para niños menores de 12 años. Este año, los Caballeros realizarán una rifa durante la cena. El premio es un televisor nuevo de pantalla plana a color de 50 pulgadas. El sorteo se llevará a cabo durante la cena. No es necesario estar presente para ganar, pero es preciso comprar una entrada para la cena para participar en la rifa. Por favor, apoye a los Caballeros y a nuestras organizaciones benéficas locales.

THIS WEEK'S READING:

In the Gospel of Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus presents the parable of the tenants. The owner of a vineyard entrusts its care to workers, expecting to receive the fruits of their labor. However, they forget that the vineyard does not belong to them and refuse to hand over what is due to the owner. This parable invites us to reflect on how we are caring for the gifts God has entrusted to us: our family, our faith, our talents, and our community. But it also reminds us of something very important: our actions speak louder than our words. As Christians, we are called to set an example—not merely by saying we believe in God, but by demonstrating our faith through our actions. Children learn from what they see in their parents; our peers observe how we treat others; and our community discovers God's love through the way we live. Setting a good example means acting honestly, speaking respectfully, forgiving, helping those in need, and fulfilling our responsibilities—even when no one is watching. It is not about being perfect, but about striving each day to live according to Jesus' teachings. God has entrusted a vineyard to us: our lives and the people who are part of them. What fruits are we producing? Are we sowing love, patience, generosity, and faith, or are we allowing selfishness and indifference to take their place? This week, let us remember that every small act of kindness can be a seed that bears good fruit in another person's heart. Let us be the example of the faith we wish to see in others, and let us offer God the fruits of a life lived with love.

Action for this week Choose a concrete way to set a good example: help someone without being asked, speak kindly, offer forgiveness, or dedicate time to pray with your family. Remember that the best way to teach God's love is to live it every day. (ZG)

LECTURA DE ESTA SEMANA:

En el Evangelio de Mateo 21, 33-43,

Jesús nos presenta la parábola de los viñadores. El dueño de una viña confía su cuidado a unos trabajadores, esperando recibir los frutos de su esfuerzo. Sin embargo, ellos olvidan que la viña no les pertenece y se niegan a entregar lo que corresponde al dueño. Esta parábola nos invita a reflexionar sobre cómo estamos cuidando los dones que Dios nos ha confiado: nuestra familia, nuestra fe, nuestros talentos y nuestra comunidad. Pero también nos recuerda algo muy importante: nuestras acciones hablan más fuerte que nuestras palabras. Como cristianos, estamos llamados a poner el ejemplo, no solamente diciendo que creemos en Dios, sino demostrando nuestra fe a través de nuestras acciones. Los niños aprenden de lo que ven en sus padres; nuestros compañeros observan cómo tratamos a los demás, y nuestra comunidad descubre el amor de Dios a través de nuestra manera de vivir. Dar buen ejemplo significa actuar con honestidad, hablar con respeto, perdonar, ayudar a quien lo necesita y cumplir nuestras responsabilidades, incluso cuando nadie nos está mirando. No se trata de ser perfectos, sino de esforzarnos cada día por vivir de acuerdo con las enseñanzas de Jesús. Dios nos ha confiado una viña: nuestra vida y las personas que forman parte de ella. ¿Qué frutos estamos produciendo? ¿Estamos sembrando amor, paciencia, generosidad y fe, o estamos permitiendo que el egoísmo y la indiferencia ocupen su lugar? Esta semana, recordemos que cada pequeño acto de bondad puede ser una semilla que dé buenos frutos en el corazón de otra persona. Seamos el ejemplo de la fe que queremos ver en los demás y ofrezcamos a Dios los frutos de una vida vivida con amor.

Acción para esta semana Elige una manera concreta de dar buen ejemplo: ayuda a alguien sin que te lo pida, habla con amabilidad, ofrece tu perdón o dedica tiempo a orar con tu familia. Recuerda que la mejor manera de enseñar el amor de Dios es vivirlo cada día. (ZG)

Día de los Muertos

Is a cultural–religious tradition rooted in both pre-Hispanic Indigenous practices and Catholic teaching. Although it does not appear in the Catholic liturgical calendar, Catholic communities—especially in Mexico and Latin America—commonly observe it alongside the Church’s official commemorations of the dead. The celebration coincides with All Saints’ Day (Nov. 1) and All Souls’ Day (Nov. 2). When Catholics pray for the dead. Practices such as praying for deceased loved ones reflect Catholic beliefs about purgatory, the Communion of Saints, and intercessory prayer. Missionary influence: Spanish missionaries adapted Indigenous remembrance rituals to Catholic teaching, integrating them into the November commemorations. Cultural and Religious Elements Common practices include: Ofrendas (altars) with crosses, candles, images of saints, photos of the deceased, and visits to cemeteries to clean and decorate graves. Prayers such as the Eternal Rest prayer and the Rosary are said during this time. These expressions blend cultural symbolism (marigolds, sugar skulls) with Catholic devotion. Catholic sources affirm that participating in Día de los Muertos is acceptable as long as the practices do not contradict Catholic faith and remain centered on prayer, remembrance, and Christ. Therefore Día de los Muertos is best understood as a Catholic-influenced cultural tradition, not a formal Catholic feast, but one that harmonizes naturally with Catholic teachings on praying for the dead.
